

The Jazz Shuffle is similar to the standard jazz ride pattern except it has an even stronger backbeat feel, and is used more as a dance beat. Typically the snare is played on beats 2 and 4, and with a fair intensity.

From there you can also add the triplet preceding the snare back beat..

